

Ministry of Employment and Income Assistance
BC Employment and Assistance Rate Tables

Health Supplements and Programs (Updated May 1, 2005)

Supplement	Item	Maximum Amount
Eligible and non-eligible health supplements	Basic TENS unit	$250
	Breast prosthesis	$350
Dental	Additional amount that children and adults with the persons with disabilities designation who require anaesthetic in a hospital or private facility may be eligible for	$500 of basic dental treatment per calendar year
Diet supplements	Restricted sodium diet	$10 per calendar month
	Diabetes	$15 per calendar month
	Kidney dialysis (when not eligible for kidney dialysis service through Ministry of Health)	$30 per calendar month
	High protein diet	$40 per calendar month, plus $30 towards the purchase of a blender
	Gluten-free diet	$40 per calendar month
	Dysphagia	$40 per calendar month, plus $30 towards the purchase of a blender
	Cystic fibrosis	$50 per calendar month
Medical transportation supplement	Travel allowance related to vehicle transportation	$0.20 per kilometre
	Allowance for exceptional cases where circumstances warrant a meal allowance	$4 per meal
Monthly Nutritional Supplement	Dietary items	$165 per calendar month
	Bottled water	$20 per calendar month
	Vitamins or minerals	$40 per calendar month
	Clients receiving less than this amount through appeal awards under Schedule C may apply for the monthly nutritional supplement	$225 per calendar month
Natal supplement	Single pregnancy or birth	$45 per calendar month
	Multiple pregnancy or birth	$90 per calendar month
Optical services	Eye exam provided by an optometrist	$44.83
	Eye exam provided by an ophthalmologist	$48.90
Physiotherapy, massage therapy, podiatry and chiropractic services	Medical Services Plan rate for extensions to chiropractic, physiotherapy, podiatry and massage therapy services	$23 per visit
Supplement for alcohol and drug treatment	Per eligible recipient	$500 per calendar year

Page updated: 2005 May 1